

David B. Shepherd

Associate

David Shepherd is an associate in the firm's New York Real Estate & Finance Law Practice Group. His practice is focused primarily on the representation of institutional and non-institutional Lenders and Borrowers in connection with commercial loans secured by real property, and other assets. Additionally, David prepares and negotiates leases on behalf of landlords and tenants of retail, restaurant, and office properties and negotiates and facilitates closings for sales contracts for sellers and purchasers of commercial real property.

At his prior firm, David garnered significant experience counseling developers, for-profit, and not-for-profit corporations in the acquisition and disposition of various classes of commercial real estate.

While a student at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, David was an E. Nathaniel Gates Scholarship recipient, Staff Editor of the Cardozo Journal of Law and Gender, wrote an article that was published in the 22nd edition of the Journal, and was the President of the Real Estate Law Association.

Contact

 (917) 369-8822

 dbshepherd@norris-law.com

 Download vcard

 Download bio

Areas of practice

Real Estate, Finance, and Land Use

Education

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law
J.D., 2016

Baruch College, Zicklin School of Business
B.A., 2011

Professional Affiliations

New York State Bar Association

New York City Bar Association

Project REAP Fellow

Bar Admissions

New York

New Jersey

