

Laura M. Miller

Senior Counsel

Laura Miller is a business attorney focusing her practice on administrative and government regulatory law in the public utility, telecommunications, cable television, and communications infrastructure industries.

Laura handles New Jersey Board of Public Utilities regulatory approval and compliance matters, municipal franchise renewals, public right-of-way access negotiations and agreements, compliance investigations, enforcement actions, and administrative law proceedings. She represents clients in commenting on agency rulemaking, and understands and keeps apprised of regulatory and political changes that affect client business operations and initiatives.

In representing public entities, Laura has drafted numerous resolutions and ordinances and provided counsel concerning municipal management, including public bidding and procurement and compliance with the Open Public Records Act.

Additionally, Laura has over a decade of experience in complex civil litigation, having represented both private and public clients in state and federal courts in cases involving commercial and corporate disputes and the defense of labor and employment claims.

Prior to her legal career, Laura was active in political fundraising and campaign management in the state of Arizona, serving as the Field Director for a statewide political campaign, and later as the Director of Public Policy in the Arizona Attorney General's office.
