

Sharyn A. Tritto

Member

Sharyn A. Tritto specializes in all aspects of real estate litigation, particularly landlord and tenant law. As a real estate attorney, she also handles leasing and transactional matters.

Sharyn has practiced in all courts at both the trial and the appellate levels. In addition, she handles matters before various administrative agencies, including but not limited to the Environmental Control Board and the Division of Homes and Community Renewal.

Before joining Norris McLaughlin, Sharyn had been an associate attorney at Penn, Proefriedt, Schwarzfeld, & Schwartz since 2001. Prior to that, she was in-house counsel at Sol Goldman Investments, where she handled everything from nonpayment proceedings to complex real estate litigation matters in the Supreme Court. Sharyn also was an associate attorney at Carb, Luria, Glassner, Cook, & Kufeld, LLP, and a foreign associate at Murayama & Associates in Tokyo. Her career began at Borah, Schwartz, Altschuler, Goldstein, & Nahins, P.C., where she was a trial attorney specializing in real estate litigation.
